The Four Types Of Friends

The Four Traits Of A Friend

Proverbs 17:17 A friend is always loyal, and a brother is born to help in time of need.

18 It's poor judgment to guarantee another person's debt or put up security for a friend.

Proverbs 18:24 There are "friends" who destroy each other, but a real friend sticks closer than a brother.

Proverbs 20:6 Many will say they are loyal friends, but who can find one who is truly reliable?

Proverbs 25:17 Don't visit your neighbors too often, or you will wear out your welcome.

18 Telling lies about others is as harmful as hitting them with an ax, wounding them with a sword, or shooting them with a sharp arrow.

19 Putting confidence in an unreliable person in times of trouble is like chewing with a broken tooth or walking on a lame foot.

20 Singing cheerful songs to a person with a heavy heart is like taking someone's coat in cold weather or pouring vinegar in a wound.

Proverbs 27:14 A loud and cheerful greeting early in the morning will be taken as a curse!

Proverbs 24:26 An honest answer is like a kiss of friendship

Proverbs 27: 5 An open rebuke is better than hidden love!

6 Wounds from a sincere friend are better than many kisses from an enemy.

Proverbs 27:9 The heartfelt counsel of a friend is as sweet as perfume and incense.

Proverbs 29:5 To flatter friends is to lay a trap for their feet.

Proverbs 16:28 A troublemaker plants seeds of strife; gossip separates the best of friends.

Proverbs 17:9 Love prospers when a fault is forgiven, but dwelling on it separates close friends.

Proverbs 29:1 Whoever stubbornly refuses to accept criticism will suddenly be destroyed beyond recovery.

Psalms 119:63 I am a friend to anyone who fears you— anyone who obeys your commandments.

Proverbs 27:17 As iron sharpens iron, so a friend sharpens a friend.

John 15:12 This is my commandment: Love each other in the same way I have loved you.

13 There is no greater love than to lay down one's life for one's friends.

14 You are my friends if you do what I command.

15 I no longer call you slaves, because a master doesn't confide in his slaves. Now you are my friends, since I have told you everything the Father told me.
